Embracing the 'white picket fence' dream, this gorgeous four bedroom period home sits pretty as a picture on a wide corner allotment of approx. 532m2, among lush manicured gardens. Restored period features unite with modern amenity in this family home, delivering spacious elegance and an easy-maintenance lifestyle, in a peaceful and verdant location just metres from Lynden Park, providing easy access to the city's most elite public and private schools.

The magnificent triple-fronted façade alludes to spacious internal dimensions, introducing a portico entry that reveals gleaming polished floorboards within. Four period rooms display high decorative ceilings, picture rails and two open fireplaces with immaculate presentation, providing flexibility to the floorplan as combinations for bedrooms, sitting or dining rooms, with fitted built-in robes to two rooms.
